UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

OLIVER D. SMITH

Plaintiff,

VS.

JOHN DOE

Defendant

) Case No. 3:24-cv-00727-AGT

EX PARTE MOTION

Judge: Hon. Alex. G. Tse

Plaintiff Oliver D. Smith recently filed an ex parte application in accordance with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 45 (a) (3) for a court clerk to issue and sign subpoena form (otherwise left blank) (ECF No. 50). The subpoena is to produce electronic information under Rule 34 to identify the John Doe. Substack Inc., was recently dismissed as a defendant in this case (ECF No. 49), but the Plaintiff wishes to now serve a subpoena on them, as a third-party, in accordance to identify the John Doe¹ with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 45 (c): “NONPARTIES. As provided in Rule 45 a nonparty may be compelled to produce documents and tangible things or to permit an inspection.” The Plaintiff was recently given until 10 January 2025 to identify the John Doe, but he can only do that through a subpoena. He believes he can meet the deadline but depending on this ex parte motion.

¹ Substack Inc., has access to electronic information that can identify the John Doe in this case.

1 The Plaintiff's concern is he does not live near the headquarters of Substack Inc., which are at
2 the address: 111 Sutter Street, 7th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94104. According to Rule 45 (a) (2): "A
3 subpoena may command production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible
4 things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts
5 business in person". The Plaintiff therefore requests that the third-party is commended to produce the 6 electronic information (to identify the John Doe) either by email to his email address,² or alternatively
7 at San Francisco Courthouse, 16th Floor, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco CA 94102.³ This
8 is the clerk's office. I would request the electronic information as documents are provided to the judge
9 Hon. Alex. G. Tse (copy marked "CHAMBERS"). The Plaintiff Oliver D. Smith lives in a different
10 country (the UK), so the aforementioned suggestions for compliance are the best practical solutions.

13 The Plaintiff has emailed Substack Inc and their attorney to voluntarily produce the information
14 to identify the John Doe by 13 December 2024, but they are unlikely to do this since they rejected
15 doing this previously, so it is likely to be now done through a third-party subpoena where the court is 16 to compel Substack Inc to produce the documents that identify the John Doe in accordance with Rule
17 45 (c). The Plaintiff therefore respectfully asks the judge to make an order granting him permission 18 to either request that the third-party is commended to produce the electronic information (to identify 19 the John Doe) by email to his address, or alternatively at the San Francisco Courthouse clerk's office.
